MGC Welcomes New Commissioner

Jefferson City, Missouri - The Missouri Gaming Commission welcomes new Commissioner Suzanne Bocell Bradley of St. Joseph. Bradley is an attorney and part-time judge on the St. Joseph Municipal Court Bench. She was raised in Kansas City, and has a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Kansas and a law degree from UMKC.

MGC Executive Director Gene McNary says "I commend Governor Blunt's appointment. Ms. Bradley brings considerable legal experience, and represents Northwest Missouri, which has never been represented on the Commission. Ms. Bradley will quickly learn the importance of the gaming industry, and its extensive tax benefits which support education, Early Childhood and other programs."

Suzanne Bocell Bradley fills the fifth seat of the five member Commission.
