Gaming Commission Extends Hours of Liquor Sales for Riverboat Gaming Casinos in Convention Trade Areas

Jefferson City - The Missouri Gaming Commission is allowing riverboat gambling casinos located in convention trade areas to serve alcoholic beverages until 3 a.m.

Missouri Gaming Commission Executive Director Gene McNary says "this amendment to the current hours of operation rule is necessary in order to remain competitive in convention trade areas."

The rule currently provides for all riverboat gambling casinos to serve alcoholic beverages until 1:30 a.m.

The Commission vote was unanimous.
