Missouri Gaming Commission Chairman

Confirmed by Senate

February 19, 2015- Jefferson City -The Missouri Senate has confirmed Leland M. Shurin as the next chairman of the Missouri Gaming Commission. Shurin is a managing partner at the Shaffer Lombardo Shurin law firm, a general trial and business law practice in Kansas City, Missouri. Mr. Shurin has represented clients in litigation in all levels of trial and appellate courts in Missouri and in jurisdictions outside of Missouri. His legal work has earned him numerous professional honors and he is recognized on both a regional and national level as an arbitrator and mediator. Both state and federal courts appoint him as a special master. Mr. Shurin earned his law degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City and his undergraduate degree in economics from the University of Missouri.

Leland Shurin has been appointed for term ending April 29, 2017.
