Why You'll Love This Position:

Looking for a rewarding career at a unique government agency? Do you enjoy being a part of a small, close-knit team? Roll the dice and apply to the Missouri Gaming Commission now. As regulators of the gaming industry in Missouri, our team values service, integrity and professionalism. We also offer a robust benefit package including health, dental, and vision insurance, paid holidays, parental leave, retirement and more.

What You'll Do:

- This position is responsible for performing in-depth reviews and analyses of financial records of corporations and individuals to determine their financial condition and suitability for gaming licensure in the State of Missouri.
- Analyze corporate finances, including audited financial statements, regulatory reports (such as SEC filings), and company-prepared reports.
- Review corporate structure, financial position, profit and loss, cash flows, operating budgets, tax returns, debt and equity financing, and economic metrics.
- Some in-state travel may be required.

Qualifications:

- A Bachelor's degree from an accredited college in Accounting, Finance or closely related field.
- Two years of experience in public or private accounting, credit analysis or auditing is preferred.
- A Master's degree in accounting, finance or closely related field may be substituted for one year of the general required experience.
- Relevant professional experience may be substituted for required education.

Desired Skills:

- Ability to effectively present information in one-on-one and small group settings.
- Ability to work in a team environment and take direction from management and supervisors.
