STATEMENT OF FACTS¹

6. This discipline arises from violations discovered when St. Jo Frontier Casino Vice President and General Manager Donald Wren (“Wren”) contacted Sergeant Greg Prussman (“Sgt. Prussman”) in the gaming office and advised that a promotion had not been conducted in accordance with the promotional rules.
7. On April 28, 2025, Wren contacted Sgt. Prussman and advised that the Casino IT group audited existing promotions set up in the Trilogy System and discovered two (2) errors regarding the Casino's recent Spring into Action Cash Promotion. According to the published rules of the promotion, it was supposed to begin March 30, 2025, and end on April 26, 2025. The promotion was incorrectly entered into the Trilogy System and the promotion did not start until April 1, 2025. As part of the same promotion, there was a bonus option which was designed to take place each Wednesday. This part of the promotion was not entered into the Trilogy System at all. Wren advised the employee responsible for entering promotions into Trilogy was St. Jo Frontier Casino Marketing

8. On April 30, 2025, Wren advised that a thorough review of the errors that occurred with their Spring into Cash Promotion had been conducted. He stated three hundred five (305) patrons were missing entries as a result of the errors and that the Casino planned to run the same promotion during the month of June exclusively for the three hundred five (305) patrons who were negatively affected.
