MGC Names General Counsel and Deputy General Counsel

Jefferson City, Missouri – The Missouri Gaming Commission has named Heather Richenberger as General Counsel and Nikki D. Evans as Deputy General Counsel.

Heather Richenberger worked 17 years as an attorney with the United States Courts for the Western District of Missouri serving two Federal Judges. Prior, Richenberger was a practicing attorney with a Jefferson City, Missouri law firm. Richenberger has also served as a Special Assistant United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri and an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for Boone County, Missouri. She received her Bachelor of Science from Sam Houston State University and her Juris Doctorate from the University of Missouri School of Law.

Originally from Dallas, Texas, Nikki D. Evans is a 2007 graduate of Texas A&M University and 2010 graduate of the University of Missouri Columbia School of Law. In her tenure in the private sector, she practiced as a managing attorney for a regional disability firm, representing claimants through the administrative process, in the United States District Court, and in the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit. Her tenure also included practice in family law, with significant litigation at the trial and appellate level. Evans resides with her family in Jefferson City, Missouri.
