Kevin Bond named Deputy Director of Missouri Gaming Commission

Jefferson City, Missouri – The Missouri Gaming Commission welcomes Kevin C. Bond as Deputy Director.

Kevin Bond spent the past four years as Deputy Director for the Missouri Department of Public Safety. He has 34 years of law enforcement experience, including serving as Sheriff of Pettis County for 16 years. Bond has served as President of the Missouri Sheriffs' Association, Chair of Missouri Sheriffs' Methamphetamine Relief Taskforce, Chair of the Mid-Missouri Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Task Force, and many other leadership positions in law enforcement.

“Kevin Bond’s appointment as Deputy Director of the Missouri Gaming Commission marks a significant milestone in strengthening our leadership team,” said Michael Leara, Executive Director of the Missouri Gaming Commission. “Kevin’s wealth of experience, having served as Deputy Director of the Missouri Department of Public Safety and his distinguished career in law enforcement, positions him as an invaluable asset to our organization. His outstanding leadership skills and commitment to public service will undoubtedly enhance our mission to ensure the integrity and accountability of gaming in Missouri.”

Bond is a graduate of Windsor High School in Windsor, Missouri. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Administration of Justice from Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri. He and his wife Sherri reside in Sedalia and they have two grown children.

Bond begins his duties on January 6, 2025.
